

WELCOME TO CAMPUS KOTTENFORST

A guide to the GIZ's Academy
location in Bonn-Roettgen

PREFACE

Dear guests,

A warm welcome to Campus Kottenforst. This new GIZ campus site was opened in January 2018 amidst the beautiful nature reserve Kottenforst. It is one of several training centres worldwide run by the organisation's Academy for International Cooperation.

Here, we provide you with excellent learning opportunities in a modern learning environment. The campus' light-flooded and open ambience with its numerous niches and networking areas invites you to enter into an exchange with other participants and become mutually inspired. We frame the room for useful and diverse learning experiences as these open spaces promote open-minded thinking. The Media and Information Centre (MIA) and the interactive learning stations on site further support your creative and inspired learning.

Campus Kottenforst offers ideal conditions not only for learning. You will also find modern guest rooms and a restaurant offering a variety of international dishes right on the premises. Meeting places, sports and leisure activities in the building and in the outside area provide you with a pleasant and diverse setting during your stay.

We hope you have an inspiring and memorable time here on Campus Kottenforst. This guide will help you to easily orient yourself. Enjoy your stay with us!
